Dear Mr. Bain:

You would think I was asking for gold when I asked for a package of Federal Reserve notes. I am enclose $100 in the new Federal Reserve notes of the St.Louis Branch, as you requested.

The teller asked me for notes on other banks, so if you do get a large group from each bank, I would like to have two specimens from each bank, when you get them. You are very nice to suggest that.

I am, of course, glad to be helpful to you in gathering together those from our branch here.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Bain:

Enclosed find $22.00 in St. Louis Feds.

The few that are being released to my bank have not had star notes but the chief money teller is alerted to your request and will find them in due course. Apparently the Treasury wants to keep issuing their supply of Silver Certificates.

Thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours.

Dear Mr. Bain:

As requested in your telephone conversation, today, I requested my bank teller to produce some $1.00 Federal Reserve notes, which he did, with the understanding that I give him the sets of Feds which you said you would have available. Would you, therefore, send me three sets, excluding H, and I believe everybody will be happy.

If you have not already sent me your check, please deduct the proper amount. If you have sent the check, I will send you one in return.

I am glad to be helpful.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Bain:

As requested, I am enclosing ten 1 1963 * notes.

If it is convenient for you, you could send me as many 1963 regular $1 notes from banks other than St. Louis as you happen to have.

The $5 1963 items are not distributed as yet by my bank.

The sheet of Texas scrip arrived and is higher than you quoted me. Since I already have all the items in other than sheet form I will probably return it.

Dear Tom:

Thank you, very much, for your kind remarks concerning EARLY PAPER MONEY OF AMERICA. It was a pleasure to write it.

With respect to the Marckhoff collection, I took for my own collection, whatever I did not have, and intend to dispose of the balance, in bulk, at exactly what I paid for the items constituting the balance. I am not going to make any separate transactions as I attempt to avoid any commercial aspects of numismatics wherever possible.

As to the 1963A Series of Federal Reserve notes of St. Louis, I find that our Federal Bank has not distributed any and when they do I shall certainly obtain your needs for you.

Kindest regards.

Dear Mr. Newman:

My father has informed me that you have a couple of unlisted $\text{U}_{\bullet}S_{\bullet}$ Fractional Currency items.

As this is my specialty, I am very interested in seeing one of them and to know the price. If you will send it to me for my inspection, I will certainly pay the postage should I return it.

I hope to make the ANA Conventions in the future and I am looking forward to meeting you as my father has your books.

Dear Mr. Bain:

I have a rare duplicate of an unusual item relating to fractional currency. It is Mendelson's publication as to counterfeit detection and redemption of fractional currancy and bank notes. It is a broadside (25" x 18") published in 1863. The portion with pictures of fractionals is enclosed. I feel that some specialist in fractionals should have it.

I never sell any numismatic items as I am non-commercial. I will trade it for something I will enjoy. If you have any interest in the item, perhaps you have a suggestion.

Also I enclosed a photocopy of a counterfeit fractional. Do you have another counterfeit to trade for it? I like to collect the counterfeit varieties as well.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
